

1 a) Jacqueline Wilson is a novelist. What does her work involve?

1 mark

b) If someone writes a book about themselves and their life, it is called an

1 mark

2 a) What made Sainsbury's in the middle of the twentieth century look like an 'oriental boudoir'?

1 mark

b) What is meant by an 'oriental boudoir'? Use a dictionary to check your answer.

1 mark

3 In Jacky's childhood, people buttered each slice of bread before slicing it off the loaf. Why do you think they did this? Check the text for clues.

1 mark

4 Why did people frequently queue for food, and why were there shortages when Jackie was a child?

1 mark

5 Which of the fruits mentioned do you think were imported to Britain in those days?

2 marks

6 What do people do when they 'haggle' at market stalls?

1 mark

7 Why do shop assistants no longer keep a pencil behind their ears, as the bacon boy did?

1 mark

8 What does Jacky mean when she says that the sacks of loose produce were 'just the right height' for her?

1 mark

9 Who was Gwennie, and how did she come in useful in the grocer's shop?