

1 In your own words, explain what the 'woman of water' has done to upset the wizard.

1 mark

2 What do the ingredients that the wizard collects have in common?

1 mark

3 Give an example of one of the collected items that is intangible – an abstract noun or phrase.

1 mark

4 Ring the one word below that best describes what this poem is about.

love fear equality revenge disappointment

1 mark

5 What is the final thing that the woman does – the thing that causes her to be turned into a well?

1 mark

6 Why does the poet repeat the word 'down' in the last line?

1 mark

7 Could anyone be said to have 'won' in this tit-for-tat battle? Explain your answer.

2 marks

8 The poet says that the wizard 'took' the tears of a statue and the weight from a grain of sand. He then uses more exciting verbs to describe collecting other ingredients. Which is your favourite, and why?

2 marks

Review