

1 The hours after midnight, when the times of day are in small numbers (such as one, two or three o'clock), are sometimes called the _____ hours.

1 mark

2 The tempest is described as 'tigerish'. In what other way does the description of the storm remind you of an animal?

1 mark

3 Where is Kirstie's house?

1 mark

4 Kirstie fears that 'the roof must go'. What does she mean by this?

1 mark

5 Is Angus older or younger than his sister?

1 mark

6 What is Angus doing that shows he is asleep?

1 mark

7 If 'Grumble' really was Grandfather's name, what change would you make to the sentence "All you ever do is grumble, grumble"?

1 mark

8 Who is Grumble worried about when the storm wakes him?

1 mark

9 What tells you that the house has no electricity?

1 mark

10 What words does Grumble use to tell Kirstie and her mother that the storm is disturbing his sleep?

1 mark