

Home Learning Term 1

Home learning will be set on a Friday and back in on the following Wednesday. Alongside home learning please ensure you are bringing in your reading book and reading record daily as we will be using these in class each day.

Once per term you can use the golden ticket at the bottom of the sheet to opt out of the Home Learning for that week.

Task	Hand in date
Settling back in... As this is the first official week of home learning, please just make sure you are reading daily, accessing Mathletics and TTRS frequently and remembering to bring your reading book and reading record to school each day.	Wednesday 14 th September
National Literacy Day To celebrate this day in your home learning book, produce a poster to advertise this day, you could include why reading and writing is so important.	Wednesday 21 st September
Roald Dahl Day Roald Dahl day takes place on the 13 th of September. In celebration of this day, I would like you to invent a new sweet or chocolate bar, it can include anything you like! Draw a picture of it and then write 2 sentences to describe it.	Wednesday 28 th September
Poetry National Poetry Day! This week can you write a poem? It can be about anything you like; it doesn't have to rhyme! It can be serious, funny or educational the choice is yours!	Wednesday 5 th October
Black History Month October is Black History Month, choose a significant person and write 5 sentences about them in your book. You could choose Rosa Parks, Martin Luther King Jr., or Mary Seacole (there are many more people you could choose!). Use the internet, books the local library, or talk to relatives who may have information to include.	Wednesday 12 th October
Invent! In your book I would like you to invent something that could be used in school (drawings only please as we don't have space in class for real life models). It could be a machine that does your homework, a pen that writes for you or a robot that comes to school instead of you, be creative!	Wednesday 19 th October
	This may be used once per term to opt out of the task. Date redeemed: -----

If you'd like to do your homework at school KS2 have a homework club each week after school – please look out for this on the clubs list!
