

Oak Class Homework

Term 2

Priority homework:

READ READ READ, for at least 15 minutes at a time, as it is the most important homework you can do. Reading regularly will improve comprehension, spelling, grammar, creativity and general knowledge.

You should also practise the weekly spellings and complete tasks on Mathletics and Times Table Rock Stars.

Title	Task	Return on
What is an ecosystem?	We have been learning about ecosystems in science. Think about an ecosystem in West Malling and list a few animals and plants that you can find there. Think of 3 things you could do to help protect it.	Wednesday 8 th November
Who is your favourite author?	Write about your favourite author. Use subordinate conjunctions because, so, when, if, to explain why. Take some extra time to read one of your favourite books.	Wednesday 15 th November
Which author would you like to try next?	Spend some time looking or thinking about which author you would like to try next. Do some online research or look in either the school or West Malling library to give yourself some inspiration. Remember that it sometimes takes some time and perseverance to get into a new book.	Wednesday 22 nd November
Multiplication extravaganza!!!	This week we would like you spend extra time practising your timetables. You could go on TT RockStars, play an online game, write them out, chant them, ask an adult to test you, play the dice game... the possibilities are endless. Choose which ever activity will help you the most. Start with the 2s, 5s, 10 and 3s. Then go onto the 4s, 8s, 6s, 7s, 9s, 11s and 12s. Don't forget the 0s and 1s too.	Wednesday 29 th November
Christmas around the world	Find out about a Christmas tradition from another country. What is it? Where does it come from? How is it different to how you celebrate?	Wednesday 6 th December

Golden ticket

This ticket is our way of letting you know that although homework is important, we understand sometimes you may have a super busy week. If you do and you need a week off from your homework just pop the date in the box and we'll know that you couldn't do your homework.
