

Learning Question	What is a mountain?
	○ I can explain what a mountain is ○ I can explain the difference between a hill and a mountain ○ I can identify the location of the highest mountain in the UK
Don't forget at the end of the lesson to colour in your star and tick your success criteria.

Draw a picture of what you think a mountain looks like:

Explain the difference between a mountain and a hill:

For a _____ to be classed as a mountain it needs to be over _____ tall and will be much _____ and _____ than a hill.

Key words:

600m hill higher steeper

Look at this map of the United Kingdom, the land is coloured differently, but what do these colours mean?

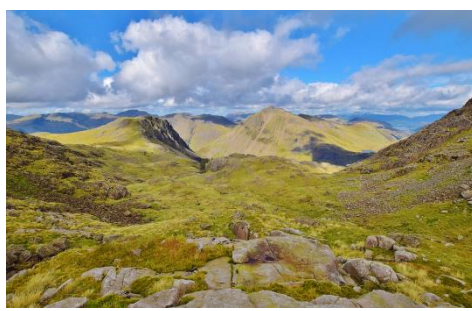

The _____ the land, the darker the shade of _____. The lower the land the _____, the green. If the land is a darker green, it means the land is _____ and there are very few _____. Other parts of the land are shaded in a dark _____ this means that there is lots of _____ in this area.

key words -

brown higher darker lower hills brown mountains

This is the tallest mountain in the UK and is located in Scotland.
It is called _____.

This is the tallest mountain in England and is called _____.

This is the tallest mountain in Wales and is called _____.