

Cologne – There are so many reasons to visit!

Cologne, a stunning city located in Western Germany, founded in 1st Century by the Romans making it one of the oldest cities in Germany. So why visit? There are so many things to see and do you will want to stay for longer. The weather in the summer stays mild so it makes your days out more enjoyable. With easy access to trams and buses you will have so much fun exploring the city.

Fancy learning how to make chocolate? Yes? Well you will love the Chocolate Museum where you can see how chocolate is made and you get to taste the chocolate too.

It doesn't matter if you are an adult or a child, the Köln Zoo is a must see with over 10,000 animals and 800 species.

Cologne also has the most beautiful cathedrals and churches; The Cologne Cathedral has 500 steps and the climb is worth it when you see the views from the top. Remember to take your camera!

If you like art, then you must visit Ludwig Museum which has famous paintings by Picasso and other world-class artists.

For more sightseeing, make your way to the Historic Old Town with its cobbled streets, colourful houses, and small local shops. It is a quieter place to be if you want to get away from the rush of the city for a while.

If you want to see the city from up high then you definitely need to go to Köln Triangle where you can take the lift up to the top which is 103 metres high and you can see some of the best views of Cologne.

The sunset in the city is a sight you must see too. Take a walk over the Hohenzollen Bridge and watch the sun go down.

By the evening, head to the Belgian District that is famous for its bars and restaurants. Try the local cuisine and drinks before you head back to your hotel and dream of all the fantastic places you have seen.

So if you want a city break where you can see animals, paintings, taste some of the best chocolate you have ever tried, walk along the city streets and wonder around old cobbled road or climb high to see miles and miles of architecture then do not miss out – visit Cologne. You will be really happy that you did.

